

To Kill a Mockingbird Questions

Answer the questions in your journal.

Be sure to paraphrase the questions in your answers.

Chapter 24

1. Why were Jem and Dill spending the last days of summer at Barker's Eddy?
2. What was it that was so different about Scout?
3. Who was the most devout Methodist in Maycomb?
4. Describe the Mrunas.
5. Who did Mrs. Merriweather think should be forgiven?
6. Why did Mrs. Merriweather find it necessary to forgive and forget?
7. What angered Miss Maudie?
8. What did Tom say to Atticus before leaving?
9. Why was Atticus home early?
10. Why was Tom Willing to take the chance of escape?
11. What does Aunt Alexandra say to show the reader that she was capable of caring for her kin?
12. According to Miss Maudie, what kind of people were willing to give everyone a fair trial?

Chapter 25

1. How did Helen react to the news about Tom?
2. Why was Tom's death a "typical" death?
3. How did Mr. Underwood react to Tom's death?
4. What did Mr. Ewell have to say about Tom's death?

Chapter 26

1. With Scout in the third grade, what was it that no longer scared her?
2. What was it about Miss Gates that confused Scout?
3. Using Miss Gates as an example, what conclusions can the reader make about the majority of Maycomb's population being hypocrites?

To Kill a Mockingbird Questions

Answer the questions in your journal.

Be sure to paraphrase the questions in your answers.

Chapter 24

1. Why were Jem and Dill spending the last days of summer at Barker's Eddy?
2. What was it that was so different about Scout?
3. Who was the most devout Methodist in Maycomb?
4. Describe the Mrunas.
5. Who did Mrs. Merriweather think should be forgiven?
6. Why did Mrs. Merriweather find it necessary to forgive and forget?
7. What angered Miss Maudie?
8. What did Tom say to Atticus before leaving?
9. Why was Atticus home early?
10. Why was Tom Willing to take the chance of escape?
11. What does Aunt Alexandra say to show the reader that she was capable of caring for her kin?
12. According to Miss Maudie, what kind of people were willing to give everyone a fair trial?

Chapter 25

1. How did Helen react to the news about Tom?
2. Why was Tom's death a "typical" death?
3. How did Mr. Underwood react to Tom's death?
4. What did Mr. Ewell have to say about Tom's death?

Chapter 26

1. With Scout in the third grade, what was it that no longer scared her?
2. What was it about Miss Gates that confused Scout?
3. Using Miss Gates as an example, what conclusions can the reader make about the majority of Maycomb's population being hypocrites?