

TCI 14.1 - 14.6 Study Guide:
Andrew Jackson and the Growth of American Democracy:
Inauguration, Frontier to White House, Approach to Governing, Nullification, Bank of the U.S.

WL
self-made:

ID
civil servants:

tariff:

spoils system:

secede:

charter (n):

nullify:

1. Before the 1820s, which people had the right to vote in America? Why did this change?
2. Draw a diagram or chart showing the change in the number of people who voted in 1824 and 1828.
3. What had Jackson promised “the common man”? Describe the shift in political power.
4. How was Andrew Jackson’s youth different from that of previous presidents?
5. What conclusion can you draw based on the fights Jackson got into and the Dickinson incident?
6. What incident made Jackson a popular hero?
7. What “corrupt bargain” did Jackson’s supporters accuse John Quincy Adams of?
8. How did campaigners support “Old Hickory”?

9. Why were Jackson's advisors called his "kitchen cabinet"?
10. Why did Jackson replace many Republicans who were already in office?
11. How did Jackson respond to a treasury official who had stolen money from the government?
12. What did Congress place a tariff on in 1828? Why did they do this?
13. Who disliked the tariff? Why? How was John C. Calhoun involved?
14. What did Jackson do in response to concerns about the tariff? How did Calhoun respond?
15. How did Jackson respond to Calhoun? What did Congress do to help?
16. What happened after Congress stepped in?
17. What was Jackson's opinion of the Bank of the United States? Why?
18. Why did Henry Clay want Congress to renew the Bank's charter?
19. Did Jackson sign the bill? Why/why not? How did this affect the election of 1832?
20. How did Jackson "slay the bank"?